

ARTICLE REVIEW

Article number:

Title of the article:

I. Overall rating

Dear Reviewer, When answering questions, please mark the appropriate box with an "X"
Assessment criteria* please mark the appropriate box with an "X"	Yes	Partly	No
1. Does the title of the article match the content?
2. Is the content within the scope of science in a given field?
3. Does the article clearly formulate the research goal and problem?
4. Did the article properly formulate theses and hypotheses and select appropriate research methods?
5. What new does the article bring to science or practice? Provide the most important: (research results, current conclusions)
6. Does the author present his own research?
7. Is the bibliography up to date and cited correctly?
8. Were graphic methods used correctly? (tables, charts, diagrams)
9. Are the language and working style correct?
10. Is the terminology used correct and scientific?
11. Is the work layout logical and legible?

II. Final grade (put an X)

Assessment criteria in points	negative assessment	satisfactory grade	good rating	Rating very good
Scientific/cognitive value of the article
Correctness and quality of the methods used
Quality and quantity of research material (e.g. statistical data)
Correctness and quality of the analysis, results and conclusions
Formal page (clearly formulated goal or thesis (hypotheses), description of methods, style, linguistic correctness)
Average rating (on a scale of 2-5)

III. Recommendations for the Author and Editors (X)

Is the work suitable for publication?
a) in its current form (accepted for publication without reservations)
b) after changing the title of the publication
c) with minor changes (accepted for publication after making some corrections)
d) accept for publication after major changes
e) the work should be rejected (not published)

Below are general and specific comments as well as necessary changes and additions according to the reviewer:

.....
Academic degree, name and surname of the reviewer, date of review